PORK – Phil Ogilvie's Rhythm Kings

DR. JAMES DAPOGNY AND CHRIS SMITH – LEADERS

Early big band" probably best sums up quickly what PORK--Phil Ogilvie's Rhythm Kings--plays. With ten-pieces and repertoire from 1923 - 1933, they play music from the two-decade period when jazz and popular music had the most in common with each other. From the jazz side, later Jelly Roll Morton and King Oliver, and earlier Duke Ellington and the Dorseys. From the pop side, there are Irving Berlin and George Gershwin, Hoagy Carmichael and Cole Porter. All originally pitched as dance music, all great material that sent American music world wide, and all played as it was originally heard.
