LIVING LEGENDS GEORGE BENSON

Editor's note: At our last GDJS concert, we were treated to the jazz stylings of George Benson and vocalist Barbara Ware. Many of you were also in attendance at Jerry McKenzie's "Just Jazz" concert which paired trumpeter Dave Tatrow and George – to rave reviews. Here's a little more info about the legendary George Benson.

George Benson's playing career began with a "C" melody saxophone at the age of eleven. When his father saw that he was interested, he bought George an alto saxophone. George played sax in both the junior and senior high school bands. He also learned to play the clarinet and the bassoon in school bands.

George played his first professional job at age sixteen with a big band at the Granada

Theater. Due to his young age, his father had to sign for him to enter the musicians union in order to work that job.

George played various clubs around Detroit and Ohio until he was drafted into the army. George was married two months before he went into the service. After being drafted, George joined the 264th Army Band stationed in Hawaii. George also played bassoon in the All Service Band. He returned to Detroit after an honorable discharge from the service and continued to work in clubs in Windsor and Detroit.

George was the leader of the house band at the famous Flame Show Bar during its last year. George continued his musical career as both a leader and a sought after sideman. Throughout the decade of the 1960's, George was a vital part of many of the Motown recordings.

Academically inclined, George Benson is well known as a teacher of Jazz improvisation and theory. He has written a book titled "Jazz Etudes Over Classic Jazz Changes" published by Houston Publishing, Inc., and exclusively distributed by the prestigious Hal Leonard.

In 1988, George received the "National Association of Jazz Educator's Outstanding Service to Jazz Education" Award.

George's performance credits, too numerous to mention here, range from Louis Armstrong to Lena Horne, Stevie Wonder to Lionel Hampton, Ella Fitzgerald to Milton Berle. He is often seen with many Detroit contemporaries including Marcus Belgrave, Cliff Monear and Barbara Ware, and in years past with the late J.C. Heard, Bess Bonnier and Matt Michaels. George has several CDs to his credit and has continued to spend the major years of his life developing the intricacies of a master musician. George has loyally remained in the Detroit area and raised a family.

For more information about George including the extensive list of those he has performed with and his recordings, please visit: www.GeorgeBensonMusic.com ■

GDJS Annual Member Picnic

The date is August 12, 2012, from 1 p.m. to dusk at the home of Nancy Blake. Her address is 15845 17 Mile Road in Clinton Township, 48038. This is 1/2 mile between Hayes and Garfield.

This will be the fourth year that member Nancy Blake has invited musicians and GDJS members to her home for a day-long jazz extravaganza of culinary delights, libations and hot jazz! The picnic is free to all members and immediate family, and all musicians and spouses (musicians and spouses are free, of course). Non-members are also welcome, paying $10 at the door, or joining the club for $10.

We ask that everyone bring a dish to pass (if you're not a cook, store-bought will be acceptable or please make a donation to the picnic). If you are bringing food, plan to arrive no later than 2 p.m. – dinner will be served at that time. The GDJS will provide hot dogs and buns, beer, water, pop, ice, cups, coffee, plates and silverware. We'll provide the tents and chairs. Other than beer, please B.Y.O.B. The air conditioning will be on that day in Nancy's spacious home in the event the temperatures are again "up."

Chuck Moss will organize the music of the day. Fliers are available with a map and more information, please call Nancy on 586-610-9871 for clarification or Sally if you'd like a map e-mailed to you. We are so grateful to Nancy for hosting this fun, annual event. It's a huge undertaking for her. As always, we count on our volunteers to make this day a success. If you are interested in volunteering for an assignment that day, please give Nancy a call. We need people to help set up before the event, assist with tasks during and clean up afterward. We hope to see you there!! ■

Web Site: <http://grugelfest.com/>

There's a new "old" festival in the works for this fall. The EARLYJAS Festival (formerly held in Strongsville, Ohio) has been replaced by the Grugelfest in Toledo, Ohio. "Ragtime Rick" Grafing volunteered to co-chair this favorite event of many of our members after the financial "bottom line" didn't measure up to expectations last year (sadly, a story we are hearing often).

GRUGELFEST, named for the late Ralph Grugel (leader of the Eagle Jazz Band) will be held at the Park Inn by Radisson Hotel. It was a bumpy start but the undaunted Rick says, "After a series of delays beyond our control (simple things; our charity went out of business, a major sponsor dropped out at the last minute, and the hotel was sold to the Chinese, for example) we are moving FULL SPEED AHEAD with the Grugelfest!"

Five great bands will be featured over three days (see complete list at left). There will be two venues, Ballroom and Lounge, plus an additional stage for piano players and small groups.

In addition to the two primary stages, Rick is working on a third venue with Craig's Pianos and Keyboards (Toledo's only real piano store). We plan to feature piano players and smaller groups there, in a more intimate setting -- and so far has Bob Milne, Jim Dapogny, and Sister Jean the Ragtime Queen lined up as headliners.

For those who prefer an outdoor setting, nearby Perrysburg, Ohio will feature hot jazz on Saturday for their annual Harrison Rally Day celebration. On Sunday, a Dixieland worship service will be held at Bethel Lutheran Church. (It's only 7 minutes away from the hotel.) After the service, they'll be serving a chicken dinner for anyone who cares to stay for it -- and Bob Milne will provide the entertainment.

Tickets are $40 per session or $120 for all sessions (there are four sessions -- Friday at 6 p.m., Saturday at 11 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. and Sunday morning at 11:30 a.m.). If you order by August 1, you'll receive the Early Bird Special of $100. A limited quantity of Patron Tickets are available; priced at $150 which include reserved seating, your name listed in the program, a Saturday morning Patron Breakfast, and free, secure parking in the Seagate Centre Parking Garage (which is attached to the Park Inn Hotel).

Tickets are now on sale. They can be purchased in person or by phone from the Seagate Convention Centre Box Office at 419-321-5007, or from Ticketmaster at www.ticketmaster.com or 800-745-3000 (although they charge an additional service fee).

The Greater Detroit Jazz Society will be a sponsor of Grugelfest and we will not be having a Jazz at Shield's concert that weekend. I am looking for volunteers to work a table at the event. We'll be passing out information about our concerts and organization.

If the above is not everything you ever wanted to know, please call "Ragtime Rick" Grafing, home phone 419-389-9070 or cell 419-481-3438. ■
